

From the STD Expert Hour Webinar Series:

The California Prevention Training Center's STD Expert Hour Webinar Series highlights current topics in the prevention and management of STD to further advance and equip your practice to provide excellent sexual healthcare for your patients. These webinars are archived for viewing at your convenience.

Syphilis 2016: Return of the Great Masquerader

with Sharon Adler, MD, MPH

Original Air Date: 9/13/16

During this webinar, Dr. Sharon Adler will share valuable insights on screening, diagnosis, treatment, and management of syphilis.

Learning Objectives:

1. Describe current syphilis epidemiology within the United States, to better incorporate data in the management of syphilis
2. Discuss screening recommendation for syphilis, to better improve screening for syphilis
3. Describe clinical manifestations, diagnostic approach, staging and management of syphilis, to better improve screening and treatment of syphilis cases

Link: <http://bit.ly/CDPHSyphilisWebinar>

Congenital Syphilis and Syphilis during Pregnancy

with Pablo Sanchez, MD, and Jeanne Sheffield, MD

Original Air Date: 4/19/17

Dr. Pablo Sanchez and Dr. Jeanne Sheffield will introduce us to Congenital Syphilis and Syphilis during Pregnancy.

Learning Objectives:

1. Describe current epidemiology of congenital syphilis and syphilis among women within the United States, to better incorporate data in the management of congenital syphilis and syphilis during pregnancy
2. Discuss syphilis screening recommendations for pregnant women, to better improve screening for syphilis
3. Describe clinical manifestations, diagnostic approach, staging, and management of congenital syphilis, to better improve screening and treatment of congenital syphilis cases

Link: http://registration.californiaptc.com/presentation_description.html?id=194

*CME and CNE credit is available for both expert hours.

Find further PTC online clinical trainings & resources here: <http://californiaptc.com/clinical-std-training-services>